

Press release from Scandinavian Astor Group AB (publ)
Stockholm July 2, 2025

Astor Group's subsidiary Airsafe Sweden receives order of approximately SEK 68 million

Scandinavian Astor Group's ('Astor Group' or 'the Company') subsidiary in advanced aviation safety equipment, Airsafe Sweden ("Airsafe"), has received orders for parachute systems from countries in the Western world. The order value is approximately SEK 68 million and deliveries are planned until 2026.

"These orders are a clear recognition of Airsafe's excellence in advanced parachute systems. They confirm Airsafe's position as a reliable partner for countries with high performance and safety requirements", says Gabor Nagy, Head of Business Area: Astor Protect.

Airsafe, a company within the business area Astor Protect, has received significant orders of approximately SEK 68 million for parachute systems. Within the framework of the orders, there is also an option for additional systems to a maximum value of SEK 22 million.

Due to the nature of the industry and the circumstances of the customer, as well as national security interests, no further information about this order or the customer will be disclosed.
