

Press release from Scandinavian Astor Group AB (publ)
Stockholm August 19, 2025

Astor Group's associated company Nordic Shield Group receives an order of SEK 40 million

Scandinavian Astor Group's ("Astor Group" or the "Company") associated company in the field of security-classified structures, Nordic Shield Group AB ('NSG'), has received an order of SEK 40 million through its wholly owned subsidiary Cesium AB ("Cesium"). The order concerns security structures for a defense actor in the Western world.

Cesium, a wholly owned subsidiary of Nordic Shield Group, an associated company within the Astor Protect business area, has received an order of SEK 40 million for security structures. The customer is a Western defense actor. The project will be delivered during 2025.

"The order underscores the strategic importance of NSG's offering in the field of security structures and how these solutions meet the growing needs in our world. For Astor Group, this is an example of how our investments in associated companies strengthen the Group's position in total defense and broaden our presence in a market with long-term high demand", says Mattias Hjorth, CEO of Astor Group.

Due to the nature of the industry and circumstances concerning customers and national security interests, no further information about this order or customer will be disclosed.

About Nordic Shield Group

Nordic Shield Group, including the operations of Cesium, NEZ, and NSG's proprietary solutions, offers specially high-level protective and secure structures, such as shelters, data centres, and containers. The systems are developed to meet modern threats such as intrusion, sabotage, and electromagnetic pulse (EMP), with a focus on mobility and rapid deployment. In 2025, NSG plans to launch several new solutions for the protection and security market. NSG is an associated company of Scandinavian Astor Group, which owns 30 per cent of the business.
