Press release from Scandinavian Astor Group AB (publ)
Stockholm January 14, 2026

Astor Group's associated company Nordic Shield Group receives orders worth approximately SEK 36 million

Scandinavian Astor Group AB (publ) ("Astor Group" or the "Company") associated company in the field of security-classified structures, Nordic Shield Group AB ("NSG"), has received orders with a total value of approximately SEK 36 million, through its wholly owned subsidiary Cesium AB ("Cesium"). The orders are for security structures for defense and security actors in the Western world.

"The orders strengthen Nordic Shield Group's position in security-classified building and protection solutions and confirms the continued high demand for robust physical security in an increasingly complex world", says Mattias Hjorth, CEO of Astor Group.

The orders are for security structures, and deliveries are planned to be made gradually during the first half of 2026. The customers are Western defence and security actors. The projects include advanced solutions for protecting critical infrastructure and security-sensitive operations.

Due to the nature of the industry and circumstances concerning customers and national security interests, no further information about these orders or customers will be disclosed.

About Nordic Shield Group

Nordic Shield Group, including the operations of Cesium, NEZ, and NSG's proprietary solutions, offers specially high-level protective and secure structures, such as shelters, data centers, and containers. The systems are developed to meet modern threats such as intrusion, sabotage, and electromagnetic pulse (EMP), with a focus on mobility and rapid deployment. NSG is an associated company of Scandinavian Astor Group, which owns 36,5 per cent of the business.
