

DS Chang nominated to Raytelligence Board of Directors

Shareholders holding 36 percent in Raytelligence have today proposed that Ding-Shin Chang is elected as a new member of the Board of Directors at the Annual General Meeting on August 6, 2025.

Ding-Shin Chang serves as Chairman of Sterling Global Capital Investment SGCI GmbH since 2011. SGCI is headquartered in Frankfurt with a focus on providing financial solutions for growing small and medium sized enterprises. Ding-Shin Chang has an MBA in Finance from ESDE Sup (École Supérieure des Dirigeants d'Entreprises) in Paris. Mr. Chang is domiciled in Europe.

The shareholders also propose the re-election of the current Board members, Charles Arnold, Robert Grinberg and Sven Otto Littorin, and the subsequent re-election of Sven Otto Littorin as Chairman.

For further information, please contact:

Robert Grinberg, CEO

Tel: +1 561 302 2787

E-post: robertgrinberg27@gmail.com

This information is information that Raytelligence AB (publ) is obliged to make public pursuant to the EU Market Abuse Regulation. The information was submitted for publication, through the agency of the contact person set out above, at 14:00 CET on 17 July 2025.

About Raytelligence

Raytelligence is an investment company with a key strategy to identify and finalise a combination with a business in any of the following sectors biotechnology & pharmaceuticals, automotive, financial services, communications technology, food technology, cutting edge technologies and media sectors in Europe, America and Asia that can benefit from our management team's extensive experience and operational capability, although the company reserves the right to exercise an acquisition option in any company or industry. The Raytelligence share is listed on NGM Nordic SME.