

The Stockholm District Court has approved Brödernas Group AB (publ) application for an extension of its company restructuring by an additional three months

May 7, 2025, 16.00 CET

The Stockholm District Court has approved that Brödernas Group AB (publ)'s ongoing company restructuring is extended by an additional three months, up until 17 July 2025, unless completed prior thereto. In relation to all other group companies, including the parent company, also subject to company restructuring, an extension of the expiration date for such ongoing company restructurings has also been approved by the relevant district courts by an additional three months for the majority of the group companies. For the remaining group companies the petition for extension of the company restructuring is currently pending and under review by the relevant district courts.
