Volvo XC90 Awarded Top Honours in Women's World Car of the Year

Luxury SUV Named Overall Winner as well as Winner of the SUV-Crossover Category

Richmond Hill, ON. October 26th, 2015. The all-new XC90 continues to receive global acclaim, and has been named the 2015 Women's World Car of the Year. Awarded the Supreme Trophy, the 7-seat luxury SUV was named best SUV-Crossover in the first round of balloting and was also named the overall winner following a second round of voting.

The Women's World Car of the Year is voted on entirely by women, with judges spanning 13 countries. The judges are made up of automotive journalists who assess each vehicle based on experiences and knowledge while maintaining a women's perspective from a vehicle purchasing standpoint.
