Volvo Car Corporation presents the Volvo XC60 Inscription - a unique blend of luxury and dynamic capability

The Volvo XC60 premium crossover will soon join the S80 sedan and C70 hardtop convertible by being offered with the exclusive Inscription package. Designed around customers who want to add an extra luxurious, personal touches to the dynamic XC capability, the Inscription buyer can choose between four colours on the seats, fully upholstered in fine semi-aniline quality leather. The XC60 Inscription package also includes several other distinctive interior features and the possibility to spice up the curb appeal with additional options like the charcoal headliner, special effect paint and 20-inch wheels.

"Many consumers we talk to have very exclusive, individual tastes. The Inscription version is designed around their preferences, by offering the opportunity to give the XC60 a highly personal touch," says Doug Speck, Senior Vice President Marketing, Sales and Customer Service at Volvo Car Corporation.

The XC60 Inscription customer has a choice of four upholsteries in full semi-aniline leather: Marble White, Toscana Tan, Off-black and Soft Beige. They are accompanied by either an Off-black or Sandstone Beige interior.

The XC60 Inscription package also includes:

- Headrests front with embroidered Inscription logo.
- Centre console armrest in leather with stitching.
- Door panel insert matching colour of the upholstery.
- Tread plates with Inscription logo.
- Electronically adjustable lumbar support.

Extended Inscription offer

The customer can further personalize the XC60 with additional options: Inscription Charcoal headliner, Inscription Electric Silver exterior colour or Inscription Avior 20" wheels. "The XC60 was our top-selling model in 2011 with almost 100,000 units delivered to customers all over the globe. The Inscription version makes our offer even stronger. The exclusive details blended with the dynamic XC capability give the XC60 a truly unique aura," says Doug Speck.

The Inscription version can be combined with all the engine options available for the Volvo XC60. It will be shown for the first time at the Leipzig Motor Show in June 2012.
