Dan Werbin to PAG

and Victor H. Doolan to VCNA

Dan Werbin has accepted the position of Executive Director for Premier Automotive Group (PAG) in North America, Ford's luxury car division which consists of Aston-Martin, Jaguar, Land Rover and Volvo. He will assume his new position on June 17. Victor H. Doolan will replace Dan Werbin as head of Volvo Car Corporation's American sales Company (Volvo Cars of North America).

Dan Werbin has solid product knowledge and a long career with Volvo Car Corporation. Dan Werbin has held a number of prominent positions within the company, recently as the president of Volvo Cars Japan, and he was one of the key people behind the development of the Volvo 850 that was launched in the beginning of the nineties.

Victor H. Doolan has extensive experience from the North American market. He has successfully been leading the BMW car business in the U.S. and his recent assignment was Executive Director for PAG-brands in the North American market.
