Volvo S90 crowned best executive car in the 2024 Auto Express Used Car Awards

- Volvo's S90 large saloon earns top used executive car honour with its "supreme comfort, equipment levels and overall quality"
- Volvo Selekt Approved Used is the perfect source for customers looking to buy an S90 or any other high-quality pre-owned Volvo model

The Volvo S90 has been voted the best choice among pre-owned executive models in the 2024 Auto Express Used Car Awards.

The sleekly styled S90 saloon claimed the honour thanks to its all-round quality, comfort and generous equipment specifications. The award judges also praised its value for money and long-distance capabilities.

Paul Barker, Auto Express Editor, said: "The S90's appeal is many pronged, but its cabin is a big selling point thanks to its supreme comfort, equipment levels and overall quality. It's a clever choice in a sector dominated by premium German saloons and offers excellent value for money as well as great mile-munching ability."

Rob Deane, Volvo Car UK's Commercial Operations Director, said: "The appeal of the S90 endures beyond its years in our new car line-up, and it's fantastic to see it being recognised as an excellent choice in the fiercely competitive market for pre-owned executive models. While the S90's reputation endures, we are now looking forward to opening an exciting new chapter with the reveal of the all-new, fully electric ES90 in March next year."

People looking to purchase an S90, or any other pre-owned Volvo, can source the best-quality cars and enjoy excellent customer support from the Volvo Selekt Approved Used service.
