

NORTHLAND

The acquisition process has been cancelled by the group of investors

Luxembourg, December 5, 2014 – Northland Resources SE (OSE: NAUR, Frankfurt: NPK, Nasdaq OMX/First North: NAURo – together with its subsidiaries “Northland”, “NRSE” or the “Company”) announces that the Company has been informed that the group of Swedish investors cancels the acquisition process that had been initiated based on the proposal to the Company’s major creditors. Furthermore, Northland has also been informed by the counterpart for a contemplated outsourcing agreement that the counterpart has terminated discussions and negotiations that, if materialized, would have provided new liquidity to the Company. As a consequence, the Board has requested a halt in trading of the Company’s shares and bonds until further notice is given.

As announced on November 20, 2014, a group of Swedish investors with industrial competence (the “Investors”) have presented a proposal to purchase debt from the Company’s major creditors, including the Company’s bondholders (the “Proposal”). The Company has now been informed that the Investors cancels the acquisition process that had been initiated based on the Proposal. Furthermore, the Company has been informed by the counterpart for a contemplated outsourcing agreement that the counterpart has terminated discussions and negotiations with immediate effect that, if materialized, would have provided new liquidity to the Company. A part of the additional liquidity was intended to be used for fulfillment of the Company’s obligations under the reorganization. As a consequence, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) has requested that all trading of the Company’s shares and bonds are halted until further notice is given. The Board will evaluate the information received and the Company will thus revert with a new press release at the beginning of next week.
