Capio appoints new management for the Norwegian operations

Capio has appointed Per Helge Fagermoen as new managing director for Volvat A/S in Norway, Capio's Norwegian operations. Current managing director, Christian Loennecken will continue within Volvat A/S as Chief Medical Officer (CMO) and quality manager.

Per Helge Fagermoen has worked in various positions at Capio Volvat for eight years, most recently as manager and head of operations in Oslo.

Christian Loennecken has been employed in Volvat since 1985 and has upon his own request and in consultation with Volvat's board of directors decided to hand over the management of Volvat. Christian has headed Volvat since 2010 and will now move into a new position as Chief Medical Officer (CMO) and quality manager.

Unni Gisletun, current head of Volvat medical clinic in Oslo, has at the same time been appointed new head of the entire operations in Oslo. Unni has worked at Volvat since 2008 and has extensive experience in management and business development.

Per Helge Fagermoen will assume his new position on October 1, 2015 and will, in close collaboration with Christian Loennecken, Unni Gisletun and other management of Volvat A/S, further develop Capio Volvat with operations in Oslo, Hamar, Fredrikstad, Bergen, Trondheim and Tromsø .
