New three-year agreement between SAS and the Norwegian Pilot Associations NSF and SNF

SAS has now reached new agreements with the two Norwegian pilot associations NSF and SNF. The three-year agreement is in line with the agreements recently signed with the Swedish and Danish pilot associations and contains a common ambition to create a long-term profitable SAS.

- We are pleased that we have now reached new agreements, and that we thereby have avoided a strike that would affect our customers, says Eivind Bjurstrøm, head of negotiations on behalf of SAS.

With the agreement with the Norwegian pilot associations, SAS has now reached agreement with all pilot associations in the three Scandinavian countries.
