Robert Dackeskog appointed new President and CEO

Robert Dackeskog, currently CEO for the dental wholesaler Unident AB, is appointed new President and CEO for Duni Group. He assumes his position latest February 1st, 2021.

Robert has a long experience of different types of FMCG products for professionals as well as end customers, both nationally and internationally. Between 2012 and 2019 Robert was a member of the Duni Group management team as Business Area Director for Consumer and later Table Top. He left the Group in January 2019 and later started the assignment he has today. Before his time at Duni Group, Robert held senior positions within the Findus Group.

“Robert’s long and solid experience of the business as well as previous assignments in combination with his proven leadership abilities fits well with the future needs of the Group. We are looking forward to developing the Group together with Robert the coming years”, says Thomas Gustafsson, chairman of the Board.

Until Robert takes the position as new President and CEO, Mats Lindroth, deputy CEO and CFO, will continue as acting CEO according to previous press release.
