Marielle Noble remains in Duni Group

Marielle Noble has decided to accept an offer of a position as EVP Communication and Strategic Development and will thereby remain in the Group and the Duni Group management team. Marielle Noble resigned in June from her current role as EVP Communication and Customer Experience.

Her responsibilities will, apart from communication and brand, be strategic development in above all the digital transformation and innovation.

“Marielle has a solid experience of the company and strong strategic and digital competence that meet our needs in an excellent way. We are happy that Marielle will remain in the Group”, says Mats Lindroth, acting President and CEO.
