Karin Schreil to become new CEO of Ework Group

The Board of Directors of Ework Group AB has appointed Karin Schreil as the new CEO of Ework Group. She joins Ework from TietoEvry, where she is Managing Partner for Sweden. She has previously held senior positions at Fujitsu and CGI Sweden, among others.

- With Karin, we get experienced leadership from someone who knows the consulting market well, has a good understanding of the transformation that is currently taking place and possesses strong communication skills. I look forward to a good collaboration and I am very happy that she chose to join us, says Staffan Salén, Chairman of the Board.

- It feels great to work with committed employees, consultants and partners in an organisation like Ework. I am attracted by a company that I believe is perfectly positioned in an exciting industry, where major changes are currently taking place", says Karin Schreil.

Karin Schreil will take up her new position in December 2021.
