

Akelius Residential Property AB (publ)

Akelius contemplates issuing equity and postpones interim report

Akelius has mandated Deutsche Bank, Swedbank and Avanza to investigate the market for issuing common shares of a new class D.

Akelius strives for increasing the rating from BBB to BBB+.

An extraordinary shareholder meeting will be held 2019-09-02 to introduce the class D share in the articles of association and mandate the board to issue class D shares.

The notice convening the meeting will be published separately today.

The interim report for the second quarter will be published 2019-08-23 and not 2019-08-05 as previously communicated in the company calendar.

The postponed publication is due to the auditors' review and the prospectus for the contemplated class D share.
