

Akelius Residential Property AB (publ)

Akelius acquires 199 apartments in New York

The property built in 1920 comprises 199 apartments and is located on St Marks Avenue in Crown Heights, Brooklyn. It is Akelius' second acquisition in this popular neighborhood. The location is in the central portion of Brooklyn with a good supply of shops and cafés. The access to public transportation is excellent.

The price was SEK 350 million. This is the fourth acquisition in New York. Akelius now owns two properties in Manhattan and two in Brooklyn.
