Share-based incentive scheme - Amendment

The original press release stated that each call option entitles the holder to acquire one class B share during the period from 4 September 2023 to 5 June 2024, inclusive. The amendment refers to the fact that each call option entitles the holder to acquire four class B shares during the period from 4 September 2023 to 5 June 2024, inclusive.

The share-based incentive scheme resolved by the 2020 Annual General Meeting, comprising about 25 members of management and a maximum of 250,000 call options on repurchased class B shares, has been fully subscribed.

The call options are transferred at a price of SEK 43.40 per call option, equivalent to the market value according to an external independent valuation, applying the Black & Scholes model. The redemption price of the call options amounts to SEK 538.10, equivalent to 120 percent of the volume-weighted average of market prices for the shares during the period from 31 August to 11 September 2020, inclusive. Each call option entitles the holder to acquire one class B share during the period from 4 September 2023 to 5 June 2024, inclusive.
