

Press Release

Stockholm, Sweden, 3 November 2016

Norwegian authorities will release Ola Rollén from detainment

Today, the Norwegian Economic Crime Authority decided not to file for an extension of Ola Rollén's detainment relating to allegations around personal investments in a Norwegian company. He is set to be released at the latest Saturday, 5 November. The legal investigation will continue but Ola Rollén firmly denies the accusations.

"I remain fully supportive of Ola," said Melker Schörling, Hexagon's Chairman of the Board. "As I've stated before, during 16 years of good cooperation I have never had reason to doubt his judgement."

Ola Rollén will resume his duties as President and CEO as soon as possible. In the coming days, Hexagon will announce a date and time when he will address stakeholders.

For further information, please contact:

Johnny Andersson, General Counsel, Hexagon AB, +46 8 601 26 27

Maria Luthström, Investor Relations Manager, Hexagon AB, +46 8 601 26 27, ir@hexagon.com

Hexagon is a leading global provider of information technologies that drive productivity and quality across geospatial and industrial enterprise applications.

Hexagon's solutions integrate sensors, software, domain knowledge and customer workflows into intelligent information ecosystems that deliver actionable information. They are used in a broad range of vital industries.

Hexagon (Nasdaq Stockholm: HEXA B) has more than 16,000 employees in 46 countries and net sales of approximately 3.0bn EUR. Learn more at hexagon.com and follow us @HexagonAB.