

Jennie Garth to Make Appearance at Coco Libre Booth at Expo West in Anaheim

Meet Jennie at booth #5794

Palo Alto, CA (Mar. 6, 2013) – Actress Jennie Garth, best known from Beverly Hills 90210, is set to make her first appearance at this Spring's Expo West, March 8-10, 2013 at the Coco Libre booth (# 5794). Jennie has recently embarked on a successful "Get Fit Regimen" and has attributed some of that success to incorporating Coco Libre Organic Coconut Water into her daily diet. Coco Libre is an innovative leader in the bottled organic coconut water category and will be introducing its new line - Coco Libre Protein - at this year's show.

"Every day, I just renew my healthy choices. I feel really good about myself now and I don't want to do anything to change that", says Jennie. "Coco Libre Organic Coconut Water is such an important part of my health and fitness program. It's always with me".

Ms. Garth will appear at the Coco Libre booth (# 5794) on Friday March 8, 2013 from 10am-1:45pm for a meet & greet and photos. For more information or for assistance during the show, please contact Alicia Corbett Davis: alicia@maverickbrands.com.

About Coco Libre:

Founded in 2010 by Mark Shaw, Coco Libre was the first certified organic bottled coconut water and is sourced from young green coconuts grown without pesticides. Coco Libre Organic Coconut Water is available in two flavors, original and pineapple. Both flavors are available in 11oz PET bottles and in 1 Liter Tetra Paks. The Coco Libre + Chia line launched 4 flavors in 2012: Blackberry Pomegranate, Cherry Apple, Strawberry Kiwi, and Raspberry Lemonade. All four flavors are available in 9.5 oz glass bottles and are certified organic. Coco Libre Protein will launch at this year's Expo West in Anaheim and is available in 11oz PET bottles. Coco Libre Protein is available in four mouthwatering flavors: Almond, Vanilla, Chocolate, and Coffee. All three lines are available at fine retailers across the US and in Canada.
