Superstars at supercharged.eurovision.tv

-Johnny Logan on link from Ireland – Robin Stjernberg and Bonnie Tyler in the supercharged studio

The temperature is rising. Only three days left to the Eurovision Song Contest final on Saturday. England's contestant Bonnie Tyler will visit TeliaSonera's studio at Gustav Adolfs Torg in Malmö tonight at 6.30 p.m. At the same time Johnny Logan, one of Eurovision's greatest artists, will participate via link from Ireland. This could be an interesting meeting.

All broadcasted at supercharged.eurovision.tv. At the website you will find everything about the Eurovision Song Contest, exclusive content such as interviews and live broadcasts with the participating artists, photos and films, tweets and unique moments showing the artists preparing for the final. This is a platform for all Eurovision fans all around Europe and made possible by TeliaSonera's international network and technical competence.

"We are aiming for the most engaging, shared and connected Eurovision ever," says Piret Mürk Dubout, Head of the project at TeliaSonera.
