Cecilia Lundin new Head of Human Resources at TeliaSonera

TeliaSonera has appointed Cecilia Lundin as Head of Human Resources and member of Group Executive Management. She currently holds a similar position at the Investment AB Kinnevik. She will take up her position at TeliaSonera September 1, 2014.

“Leadership and culture are important in building the new TeliaSonera. In these areas Human Resources will play a key role. That is why I am very pleased to be able welcome Cecilia Lundin to TeliaSonera. Cecilia has worked with these questions in various industries and is the right person to lead the Human Resources function,” says Johan Dannelind, TeliaSonera’s President and CEO.

Cecilia Lundin is 43 years old and has a broad background both from different business roles and from the human resource area. She has held positions as a human resources executive in the pharmaceutical company Novartis in the Nordics, the telecommunications operator Tele2 and the packaging paper company Billerud. She holds a Master of Science in Economics from the University of Linköping.
