

June 15, 2023

Art Wharton appointed head of business area Scandpower

Effective from today, June 15, 2023, Art Wharton has been appointed as the Business Area President for Studsvik Scandpower Group. He joined Studsvik in 2017 as a Vice President and has held the role of Acting President of the Studsvik Scandpower Business Area since October 6, 2022.

Prior to joining Scandpower Art was employed in various roles by Westinghouse Electric Company LLC for approximately 11 years. He also serves in multiple divisions/committees in the American Nuclear Society, and currently held the position of Treasurer for the Society.

"Art Wharton will play an important role in shaping the future of the Scandpower business through his knowledge, experience, and his broad industry network. I look forward to the further development of our ability to benefit the nuclear energy market with Scandpower's software, and services," says Camilla Hoflund, President and CEO at Studsvik.

For more information, please contact:

Camilla Hoflund, CEO of Studsvik, +46 760 02 10 66

Facts about Studsvik

Studsvik offers a range of advanced technical services to the global nuclear power industry. Studsvik's business focus areas are fuel and materials technology, reactor analysis software, decommissioning and radiation protection services and technical platforms for handling, conditioning and volume reduction of radioactive waste. The company has over 75 years nuclear technology and radiological service experience. Studsvik has 520 employees in 7 countries and the company's shares are listed on NASDAQ Stockholm.

This information is information that Studsvik AB (publ) is obliged to disclose pursuant to the EU Market Abuse Regulation. The information was released for public disclosure, through the agency of the contact person above, on June 15, 2023, 13:00 (CEST).

www.studsvik.com