

December 29, 2023

Studsvik strengthens the Executive Management Group

Carina Nilsson, Head of Sustainability and Compliance, is part of Studsvik's Executive Management Group from 1 January 2024.

Carina Nilsson has been employed at Studsvik since August 21, 2023. She has a solid background in business development, operational development and digital transformation from various international operations. Carina has more than 15 years of experience in leading roles, both in the private and public sector.

"Carina brings new perspectives to Studsvik based on her experience in digital transformation and operational development, which are important parts of Studsvik's journey of change towards a more sustainable and agile approach," says Camilla Hoflund, president and CEO of Studsvik.

In her new position, Carina continues to report directly to the CEO and is part of Studsvik's Executive Management Group from 1 January 2024.

For further information please contact:

Camilla Hoflund, president and CEO of Studsvik, +46 76 002 10 66

Facts about Studsvik

Studsvik offers a range of advanced technical services to the global nuclear power industry. Studsvik's focus areas are fuel and materials technology, reactor analysis software and fuel optimization, decommissioning and radiation protection services as well as technical solutions for handling, conditioning and volume reduction of radioactive waste. The company has more than 75 years' experience of nuclear technology and radiological services. Studsvik has 520 employees in 7 countries and the company's shares are listed on Nasdaq Stockholm.

This information is information that Studsvik AB (publ) is obliged to disclose pursuant to the EU Market Abuse Regulation. The information was released for public disclosure, through the agency of the contact person above, on December 29, 2023, at 08:15 (CET).

www.studsvik.com