Bulten gets highest score for its sustainability work

Bulten AB (publ) – a leading supplier of fastener solutions for the global automotive industry – has achieved gold-medal status for sustainability in the EcoVadis sustainability ranking. Bulten is also ranked in the top one per cent of companies in its industry.

“Bulten’s ambition and sustainability strategy is that the entire business should be permeated by a sustainability-oriented way of thinking. We’re hugely proud of this recognition which consolidates our position as one of the best in our industry when it comes to sustainability,” says Marlene Dybeck, SVP HR and Sustainability.

EcoVadis is an independent international organization that evaluates, scores, and ranks companies’ integration of sustainability issues in their business activities. The assessment is based on 21 criteria in four areas: environment, fair working conditions, business ethics, and the supply chain. The method used is based on international CSR standards such as the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), the UN Global Compact, and ISO 26000.

An overview of Bulten’s sustainability efforts is reported as part of the company’s annual report, which can be found at www.bulten.com.
