Peab builds new senior assisted living in Jönköping

Peab has been commissioned to build Wilhelmsrogården Senior Assisted Living on Strandängen in Jönköping. The customer is Jönköping Municipality and the contract is worth SEK 203 million.

The project consists of 90 apartments and shared community space, a kitchen, laundry room, storage space, staff space, nurse's office, medicine room and garden area comprising a total of 13,000 m² gross area.

"We're very happy to have been entrusted with building this senior assisted living in Wilhelmsro. This is an interesting and important project where we can contribute to developing the local community. We look forward to carrying it out in the best possible way," says Anders Bergeling, Region Manager Peab.

"Jönköping is a growing municipality with an increasingly aging population which in turn creates a significant need for more modern senior housing. We look forward to the construction of Wilhelmsrogården and being able to offer our senior citizens, as well as our employees, new assisted living with a good environment to live in, aimed at the future. Social Services, together with the other stakeholders, are excited about the construction of Wilhelmsrogården where the residential and outdoor environments will be designed to achieve good quality of life", says Jenny Wiberg Larsson, Department Head, senior section 3, Social Services, Jönköping Municipality.

The project is a traditional contract. Construction starts in September 2021 and is expected to be completed in October 2023.

The project will be order registered in the third quarter 2021.
