

HiQ winner in the Swedish Tax Agency procurement

HiQ is the only company that receives full score in the Swedish Tax Agency's procurement for services within IT Applications and is one of four companies that is chosen as winners in the procurement.

"It's a huge thrill for us to know that HiQ is ranked high by the Swedish Tax Agency and gets the trust to continue to help them to develop systems and services that simplifies for the citizens of Sweden", says Lars Stugemo, CEO and President of HiQ.

The procurement includes services within IT Applications and can be used by the Swedish Tax Agency, the Enforcement Authority, the Election Authority, the Swedish E-Identification Board, the Council on Advanced Tax Rulings, and the Taxation of Research Workers Board.

In the contract award decision HiQ has received the highest possible score within all areas by the Swedish Tax Agency. The areas are; Assignment Organization, Analysis and investigation, Agile Teams, Development assignment and Agile Team Java Development. The Contract can be signed earliest 1 October, when the standstill period has expired.

"The Swedish Tax Agency is one of the world's best and most modern authorities, and one of HiQ's most important clients. We are looking forward to continuing help the Tax Agency become even more efficient and to develop even smarter services", says Helena Forsmark, Managing Director at HiQ in Stockholm.

For more information, please contact:

Erik Ridman, Head of Communications HiQ, tel: +46 70-750 80 60, e-mail: erik.ridman@hiq.se