Trapets Outsourced Trading Surveillance recruits Mats Nilsson as Chief Surveillance Officer

Trapets Outsourced Trading Surveillance is proud to announce the hiring of experienced surveillance expert Mats Nilsson as Chief Surveillance Officer.

Mats Nilsson is currently with the market surveillance department at Swedish MTF Aktietorget and will join Trapets at the end of August. Before that Mats spent three years with the Swedish FSA responsible for the insider register and four years doing market surveillance at Burgundy.

“The increased interest in our Outsourced Trading Surveillance enables us to recruit additional staff and we are delighted that Mats will join us after the summer” says Peter Nylén, Head of Outsourced Trading Surveillance.
