ReadSoft hosts Capital Markets Day

ReadSoft has invited a number of analysts, investors and media to today's Capital Market Day. The President and CEO Per Åkerberg and other senior executives will present the company's strategy, products and market.

Today's presentations will demonstrate the company's product offerings and strategies. ReadSoft's primary focus on improving its margins remains in combination with good growth. ReadSoft's goal, as previously announced, that the company's leading position in the industry will be strengthened by continued focus on developing innovative and world-leading products for document process automation.

In addition to the presentations of ReadSoft's strategies; industry trends; and products, a live demo will be conducted of ReadSoft's cloud offering - ReadSoft Online. There will also be held a presentation by one of our customers.

ReadSoft may be required to disclose the information provided herein pursuant to the Securities Market Act. The information was submitted for publication at 08.00 CET on November 30, 2012
