

Press release September 30, 2026

The Government of Ghana extends public awareness and education period by one month

Sensys Gatso Group, a global leader in traffic safety solutions built on trusted innovation, through its joint venture Nationwide Traffic Management & Enforcement Ltd (NTMEL), will support the launch and ongoing operation of Ghana's Traffitech-GH National Road Safety program. The country is now expected to begin live citation issuance on November 1st.

As an update to our 10 September 2026 release, the Ghana Police Service has announced that it is rescheduling the full implementation of the Traffitech-GH program from the previously communicated 1 October to 1 November 2026 to allow for additional public awareness and education on the program. As part of its announcement, the Ghana Police Service "urges motorists, drivers and vehicle owners to take advantage of the additional period to familiarise themselves with the programme ahead of the roll out."

For further information:

Investor Relations
Sensys Gatso Group AB
E investors@sensysgatso.com

This information is information that Sensys Gatso Group AB (publ) is obliged to make public pursuant to the EU Market Abuse Regulation. The information was submitted for publication, through the agency of the contact person, at 14:45 on September 30.

Sensys Gatso Group AB is a global leader in traffic safety solutions with employees and subsidiaries in Australia, Germany, the Netherlands, Saudi Arabia, Sweden and the USA, as well as a branch office in the United Arab Emirates. Shares are listed on Nasdaq Stockholm under the stock symbol SGG.

For further information, visit www.sensysgatso.com

Vasavägen 3c, Box 2174, 550 02 Jönköping, Sweden
T +46 (0)36-34 29 80 E info@sensysgatso.com www.sensysgatso.com org. nr. 556215-4459