

Scila in strategic relationship with FIMAS

Scila AB is pleased to announce a strategic relationship with FIMAS GmbH, as an implementation partner for Scila Compliance in the German marketplace.

FIMAS, Financial Markets Solutions, is a Frankfurt based team of business and technology consultants that specialize in the financial markets industry. Scila is a Stockholm based company that delivers software solutions globally to trading venues, investment banks, brokers and regulators.

The Scila product line currently includes Scila Compliance for banks and brokers, Scila Surveillance for trading venues, and Scila Regulator for market regulators.

Target users for Scila products include heads of trading, compliance officers, risk managers, sales analysts, execution desks, exchange staff and regulators. Scila has a global customer base of nine countries, including Deutsche Börse in Germany.

“Scila Compliance is a flexible and highly efficient solution that will deliver tremendous value to the banks and brokers here in Germany. We have been working closely with Scila on their product implementation at Eurex and are very excited about this strategic partnership.” Karsten Sommer, Managing Partner, FIMAS GmbH.

“ We have provided trading surveillance technology to Deutsche Börse Group since 2011, so it is natural for us to target the German market for our Compliance solution. FIMAS and Scila know each other well from our work at Eurex, and FIMAS will be an ideal partner in the German marketplace.” Lars-Ivar Sellberg, Executive Chairman, Scila AB.
