It has been confirmed that Vardaga will open yet another nursing home for elderly in own management in the southern parts of Sweden. Villa Fridsbo in Löddeköpinge will comprise 60 apartments and will be situated in beautiful surroundings by Norrevångsvägen, overlooking fields and the nearby Fridsbogården.

The home will be built by property owner Drevviken. Vardaga will rent the property and will be responsible for the operation of the home. Villa Fridsbo is expected to open during the fourth quarter of 2021 and will be surrounded by a large garden of almost 1 500 sqm. including a greenhouse, fruit trees and cultivation boxes.

“This is a project with high ambitions. We really look forwards to contribute to a first-class elderly care in Löddeköpinge”, says Mårten Reveny, who represents Drevviken in the project.

“It feels so good that there will be a new and nice home in Löddeköpinge. We know that many of our older citizens want to live in close proximity to nature, even when the need for care arises”, says Pia Almström (M), Chair of the City Executive Board in Kävlinge kommun.
