

Viking Supply Ships AB postpones report for the third quarter

Press release

29 November 2017

As previously communicated, the company's subsidiary Viking Supply Ships A/S is in discussions with its creditors and shareholders regarding the long term financing of the company. Due to complicated and lengthy negotiations, the publication of the Q3 2017 interim report of Viking Supply Ships AB will unfortunately be delayed. The report was scheduled for release 30 November 08:30.

The dialogue is still not completed, but Viking Supply Ships is confident that a restructuring will be completed within the foreseeable future. New date for the presentation of the Q3 2017 interim report will be announced as soon as possible.
