

Press release

Kristian Aceby resigns as CFO of Loomis

Kristian Aceby has decided to resign from his role as Loomis' Chief Financial Officer and member of Group Management for a new assignment outside of Loomis. Kristian Aceby continues in his current role until a successor is in place, however, will leave his role not later than during the third quarter 2023.

President and CEO Aritz Larrea, says:

"I would like to thank Kristian for his tireless service to Loomis during his time with the Group and for the time we had together as a team. Kristian has been a key leader both in the work to position Loomis for the future, as well as for transforming the Group's finance team. We sincerely appreciate his contributions and wish him all the best going forward."

CFO Kristian Aceby, says:

"For the last five years I have had the privilege to serve as CFO of Loomis. It has been a very interesting time both for me personally and for the company. I'm proud of what we have accomplished together, and I'm confident that Loomis' fantastic employees will continue to develop the company."

The process of recruiting a new Chief Financial Officer has been initiated.

This press release is also available on the company's website, www.loomis.com.

March 24, 2023

Aritz Larrea
President and CEO

Contact:
Jenny Boström
Head of Investor Relations

Mobile: +46 79 006 45 92
Email: jenny.bostrom@loomis.com

Loomis offers secure and effective comprehensive solutions for managing payments, including the distribution, handling, storage and recycling of cash and other valuables. Loomis' customers are mainly financial institutions and retailers. Loomis operates through an international network of around 400 branches in more than 20 countries. Loomis employs around 25,000 people and had revenue in 2022 of more than SEK 25 billion. Loomis is listed on Nasdaq Stockholm Large-Cap list.