Johan Wilsby resigns as CFO of Loomis

Johan Wilsby has decided to step down from his role as Chief Financial Officer of Loomis AB and as a member of the Group Management Team to pursue opportunities outside the company.

Johan Wilsby will remain in his role during his six-month notice period and for an additional period into the fourth quarter as necessary to support an orderly transition. The specific end date will be confirmed at a later stage.

President and CEO Aritz Larrea comments:

"We thank Johan for his valuable contributions to Loomis. He has played an important role in driving development in the Group's finance function to support our strategic direction. That work will continue with undiminished momentum. We wish Johan all the best in his future endeavors."

CFO Johan Wilsby comments:

"It has truly been a privilege to serve as CFO of Loomis. This period has given me the opportunity to learn, deepen my understanding of Loomis and our operations, and collaborate with the fantastic leaders within the company. I believe Loomis is well-positioned for the future, with many opportunities ahead."

The process to appoint a successor has been initiated.
