Loomis appoints Tobias Hägglov as Chief Financial Officer

Loomis AB has appointed Tobias Hägglov as Chief Financial Officer (CFO) and member of Group Management. He will assume the position on September 14, 2026, and succeeds Johan Wilsby.

Tobias Hägglov has extensive international experience within finance and IT. He most recently served as CFO and Executive Vice President at Elekta and has previously held the role of CFO at Recipharm as well as senior management positions at LEAX, Electrolux, SAS and Accenture.

President and CEO, Aritz Larrea comments:

“We are very pleased to welcome Tobias to Loomis. He brings a strong track record of driving financial performance and leading international finance organizations. His experience will be highly valuable as we continue to execute on our strategy.”

Tobias Hägglov comments:

“I am excited to join Loomis at an exciting stage. The company has a strong market position, a clear strategy and considerable growth opportunities. I look forward to contributing to its continued development and long-term value creation.”

Tobias Hägglov holds a Master of Science in Industrial Engineering and Management from the Royal Institute of Technology and a Master's degree in Business Administration from Stockholm University.
