

Verisure recognised once again as a Great Place to Work™, reinforcing its position as a leading employer in Europe and Latin America

Geneva, Switzerland, 15 July 2026 – Verisure, the world's leading provider of professionally monitored security services by customers served, is proud to announce that its commitment to creating high-performing, inclusive and engaging workplaces has been recognised again by Great Place to Work™ with certifications awarded across all the 13 countries in Europe and Latin America where the company has participated this year.

Argentina, Belgium, Brazil, Chile, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Italy, Norway, Peru, Portugal, Spain, and Sweden have all achieved their Great Place to Work™ certifications. Most participating countries improved their scores year-on-year, exceeding the certification threshold by over 10 percentage points, while eight have now maintained certification for at least three consecutive years. This continued recognition reflects positive momentum and sustained progress across the Group.

Austin Lally, Verisure CEO, commented: "As the world's number one provider of professionally monitored security services, our success is built on the dedication and talent of our people. These recognitions are especially meaningful because they reflect their experience and feedback. I'm proud of the culture we continue to build together, where people can grow, perform at their best and deliver for our customers."

Marta Panzano, Chief Human Resources, Communications and ESG Officer at Verisure, said: "Receiving these latest Great Place to Work™ recognitions is another proud moment for all of us at Verisure. As always, this is only possible thanks to the highly engaged teams across our business for continuing to build welcoming and inclusive workplaces – living our DNA every day. We believe that high-performing teams thrive in an environment where people feel trusted, valued, and empowered to grow."

Verisure is officially recognised as an outstanding employer in all its 18 countries, with additional certifications as Top Employer® Europe for the third consecutive year, as well as the Financial Times' Europe's Best Employers (2025 & 2026). Several countries have also earned local Best Workplace recognitions, further reinforcing Verisure's position as one of Europe's leading employers.
