Press release 3 October 2017

Örjan Grandin leaves his position as supply chain director of Mekonomen Group

Örjan Grandin leaves, on his own initiative, his assignment as supply chain director to assume a new assignment with another employer.

Örjan has been part of the Group Management and, among other tasks, responsible for the Group's central warehouse project. In connection with the third quarter report, 7 November 2017, the company will communicate a new division of responsibility for supply chain. Örjan Grandin completes his assignment no later than March 2018.

"I would like to thank Örjan for his work at Mekonomen Group and wish him good luck with his new assignment. Existing projects in supply chain, including the central warehouse project, are proceeding according to plan and we do not consider that this will affect future developments", says Pehr Oscarson, president and CEO of Mekonomen Group
