

Play'n GO Scoop IGA Awards

Slot specialist Play'n GO were present at the International Gaming Awards last night as they picked up an award for their work in the industry over the last twelve months.

The black-tie event, currently in its 12th year, took place at London's infamous Savoy Hotel and brought together some of the biggest names in the industry under one roof to celebrate the excellence and achievement of suppliers, operators, casinos and more.

Play'n GO were nominated for the Great Place to Work Award (Supplier), Mobile Product of the Year and Slot Provider of the Year and came away winners of the Slot Provider of the Year award amidst some heavy competition in the category.

The award-winning supplier are expecting their biggest year yet in 2019 and last night's success is surely a sign that it is coming to fruition.

CEO Johan Törnqvist took some time to speak about the company after the win:

"It's an amazing feeling to have come away with this award!"

"Everyone at Play'n GO works together to maintain and advance upon the quality and consistency we bring to all of our products. It is this teamwork and togetherness that allows us to thrive as a company and earns us awards like this."
