

Updates to ESL's 2020 schedule for esports Master properties

STOCKHOLM, May 5th 2020 — Modern Times Group MTG AB's (MTG) portfolio company ESL's has decided to make further changes to its schedule for esports Master properties.

As a consequence of the ongoing novel Coronavirus pandemic, MTG's portfolio company ESL has decided to make further changes to its esports Master properties event schedule. This is done to ensure business continuity and continued delivery of esports entertainment in a responsible way, while taking into account current limitations and restrictions on a country per country basis.

The file attached to this announcement represent the current situation for ESL and Dreamhack as of May 5th 2020 and is subject to change.

Because of the fluidity of the situation and the need to adapt accordingly, information around further changes to ESL and Dreamhack's festival and Master properties schedule will be made regularly as and when required.
