

Designing Spaces on Lifetime TV Welcomes Standard Furniture, Inc. to Military Home Makeover Series

Standard Furniture, Inc. to help out an injured vet and his family on "Designing Spaces of Hope - Project Homeward Bound" series

(Pompano Beach, FL – CISION – May 29, 2013) Popular home improvement show Designing Spaces™ on Lifetime Television welcomes Standard Furniture Manufacturing Company, Inc. to the "Designing Spaces of Hope - Project Homeward Bound" series. The 3-part series will air on Designing Spaces™ on Lifetime TV in late September 2013.

"Project Homeward Bound" follows the home makeover journey of a military vet who was injured while on duty in the Middle East. Standard Furniture, Inc. will provide furniture and interior design tips to the Taylor family in their quest to transform their home into a happy and healthy living space.

Standard Furniture, Inc. is a manufacturing and distribution company based in Alabama. With a large workforce, manufacturing space, and fleet of trucks, Standard Furniture provides high-quality furniture at several price points to many furniture retailers, small and independent to nationally-known.

"We're very happy to have Standard Furniture on our show as a valued partner for this good cause. I'm sure the Taylor family will be very appreciative of Standard Furniture's support," says Lysa Liemer, Executive VP of Programming and Chief Operating Officer of Designing Spaces™ on Lifetime TV.
