

Cucina opens new contract at Goffs School in Hertfordshire

New contract worth £1.2m over 5 years

School catering firm Cucina Restaurants has opened its 6th new contract for 2013, at Goffs School in Cheshunt, Herts.

Goffs School is a secondary school with 1300 students on roll, aged 11-19 years.

The 5 year contract has an estimated turnover of £726,173 over the first 3 years and £1.2m over 5 years.

Cucina MD Steve Quinn said:

"This new contract brings our total restaurant numbers to 42. Our company continues to grow at an ideal rate, allowing us to maintain our excellent standard of food and service across the UK."
