Nobia announces the departure of Group CFO Rasmus Laursen

Nobia today announces that its Group CFO, Rasmus Laursen, will leave the company with immediate effect. Kenneth Sachse, Group Finance Executive, will assume the Group CFO responsibilities while the company searches for a successor.

"We have concluded that this was unfortunately not the right match for Nobia, and we have chosen to act without delay," says Jesper Gylling Olsen, President and CEO of Nobia.

With more than 25 years of experience as CFO of international companies, Kenneth Sachse brings senior financial leadership experience to the transformation of Nobia.

The search for a permanent successor has started and will be announced once the process has concluded.
