Rejlers and Specialfastigheter sign framework agreement

Rejlers has signed a framework agreement with Specialfastigheter Sweden AB, which owns and manages many properties with demanding security requirements. The agreement runs for two years, with an option for extension, and covers the provision of technical consultancy services in a wide variety of areas of expertise.

Specialfastigheter Sverige AB owns and manages many of the country's most secure properties, including police properties, institutions, defence headquarters and courts. Under the new framework agreement, Rejlers will provide technical support services to the company in new-build, alteration and extension projects, as well as general technical advice.

- "We look forward to continuing our strategic partnership and continuously supporting Specialfastigheter in its efforts to achieve its project goals," says Jonas Holmstedt, Divisional Manager, Buildings at Rejlers, and continues:
- Through our greater commitment, we can work with our partners to deliver a broader and deeper range of expertise within the field, which is fully compatible with our strategy to continually contribute increased learning for our customers.

About Specialfastigheter Sverige AB

Specialfastigheter owns and manages many of the country's most secure properties, including well-known institutions, police properties, defence headquarters and courts. Security is a key issue for Specialfastigheter. Our clients' day to day operations, which cover everything from correctional institutions and court buildings to special care homes and defence properties, require protection, security and secrecy. Our properties are tailored to uses which entail demanding security requirements in the form of operational, personal, information and physical security.
