

Tony Falck new CFO at Orc Group (Cidron Delfi Intressenter AB)

Tony Falck, B.Sc. Business Administration has been appointed CFO of Orc Group. He succeeds Tomas Ljunglöf who is leaving the company in July 2013.

Tony comes from a position as CFO for Mercuri International Group and has a solid international career at companies such as Telia AB and Cambridge Silicon Radio. Tony joins Orcs executive management and will start no later than September 1, 2013.

“I am very pleased to welcome Tony onboard and I am confident that Orc will benefit greatly from his international experience and valuable expertise in driving and supporting change management processes as a controller or CFO,” says Torben Munch, CEO, Orc Group.

“Tomas and his team have delivered an outstanding performance since Nordic Capital acquired Orc Group,” Torben Munch continues. “Tomas contributions have been instrumental when separating Orc Group into three independent companies, during the successful bond issue and when establishing solid routines and processes for financial tracking and overall monitoring of the business. On behalf of the Board and Orc’s management team I wish Tomas the best of luck in the future.”
