

We Celebrate Spring

January 15th, 2013

Spring is a time to celebrate. A time for holidays such as weddings and graduations, but perhaps it is also a time to celebrate that new job that someone got? Or moving in to your first own apartment? Perhaps someone deserves to be celebrated for no special reason at all?

No matter your reason to celebrate, Kosta Boda gives you glass that are perfectly suitable as gifts for yourself or someone special. Glasses for everyday life and parties. Glasses for tasteful aromas and sweet lemonade. Glasses for strawberries and cream. In short, the spring news from Kosta Boda leaps of spring feelings!

Celebrate

Design by Kjell Engman

No matter if you prefer wine or champagne there is always a reason to celebrate. To rejoice. To smile. With its inviting colors and shapes, and the visible bubbles, the bottles by Kjell Engman makes us smile and puts a silver lining (or gold in this case) on our lives.

An appreciated gift for someone you love, or why not for yourself?

Open Minds

Design by Ulrica Hydman-Vallien

Ulrica Hydman-Vallien is known for her characteristic paintings of tulips, snakes and faces. This year these paintings will adorn a new shot glass. The glass has a molded foot with a mouth blown cup and is being made in our hotshop in Kosta where it is also painted by hand. The foot of the glass has the same shape as the previous Open Minds vase and the glasses also get the familiar "Open Minds colors". Black, white, clear, blue and pink.

Make up your kitchen

Design by Åsa Jungnelius

Åsa Jungnelius is the queen of glitter and glamour and this spring she gives us a more glamorous everyday life with her series Make Up Your Kitchen. These glasses are as suitable for lemonade and buns as for when you want to spruce up the regular, ordinary, wonderful Tuesday evening with the family. The glasses can be washed in the dishwasher 'cause that's a luxury we want to treat ourselves with!

Because

Design by Bertil Vallien

"I have always wondered why there are no real presents. I mean, presents that are just presents, and not something used to toast bread. Presents that have a thought behind them and is not complete as a gift without that thought. A sort of present that I would be glad to receive. And that's why I made Because." These are Bertils own words about Because.

By Me

Design by Martti Rytönen

Martti Rytönen goes Kosta Boda! With his first ever Kosta Boda product Martti Rytönen has created a delicious footed bowl with colors and shapes that are truly inviting and eye catching. By Me is the bowl you can not resist. That you just have to have. It has an expression in its design that lifts the glass and the light, airy spring colors.

What do you put in your bowl? Candy? Jewelry? Strawberries? Only your imagination will stop you!

Sugar Dandy

Design by Åsa Jungnelius

In 2010 the first glasses in Åsa Jungnelius Sugar Dandy series were released. The series has grown and this year the glasses are complemented by a bowl in five colors. Just like the other item in the Sugar Dandy series the bowl has the characteristic bottom that is its hallmark. Rolling, bubbling and alive, just like Mother Earth.

Make Up

Design by Åsa Jungnelius

Åsa Jungnelius continue her Make Up collection of female attributes in the shape of a Lipstick and a Nailpolish. The spring shade is sharp and to the point, it is Lethal Orange.

Happy People

Design by Ulrica Hydman-Vallien

Usually when we think about Ulrica Hydman-Vallien we think of color. Lots of color. This spring she gives us something new to think about, a bowl of clear glass with her rolling hallmark, but with the pattern pressed into the glass instead of painted. A bowl as beautiful on its own as filled with something sweet.

Earth

Design by Bertil Vallien

The popular sculpture series Earth are being expanded this spring. Bertil presents two new worlds, My Universe and My Ocean, showing Bertils view on our environment.

Line - Cognac

Design by Anna Ehrner

Stemware series Line is one of our most popular series and has been part of our assortment since 1982. This spring the series gets a new cognac glass, especially made to enhance the aroma of the beverage and highlight its taste.

A classic, footed, cognac glass with the Line series winding hallmark.

Noel of the Year

Design Anna Ehrner

Designer Anna Ehrner has created the well know Santa that has become a dear friend in many homes during Christmas. The little Santa Noel of the Year gets an orange hood with red stripes this year.
