

ACCLAIMED GAY LOVE STORY OUT IN THE DARK SET FOR DVD RELEASE (15)

"A powerful love story with a fresh twist" Paul Burston, Time Out

"Danger, sensuality and excitement together" David William Upton, So So Gay

The award-winning directorial debut from Michael Mayer, gay drama OUT IN THE DARK (15) stars newcomer Nicholas Jacob as Arab student Nimr alongside Michael Aloni (Policeman, Infiltration) who plays Jewish lawyer Roy. A gripping story of forbidden Arab-Israeli love, Nimr is rejected by Islamic society for his sexuality, and outcast by Jewish society for his nationality. The film will be released on DVD 14 October 2013, courtesy of Network Releasing, RRP £17.99.

OUT IN THE DARK made its UK debut at the BFI London Lesbian Gay Film Festival earlier this year and was screened as part of the Accenture Gala. The film also won the Audience Award for Best Feature Film at the Mardi Gras Film Festival 2013. It was released at key sites in the UK on 5th July 2013.

Special Features Include:

- Interview with Michael Mayer, Michael Aloni and Nicholas Jacob
- Deleted Scenes
- Original Theatrical Trailer
- Image Gallery

ENDS

For further information please contact:
Bryony Forde, Sabina Maharjan or Luciano Chelotti

Network Releasing, 19-20 Berghem Mews, Blythe Road, London, W14 0HN

Tel: 0207 605 4425 or 0207 605 4422

Email: bryony.forde@networkreleasing.com, sabina.maharjan@networkreleasing.com or luciano.chelotti@networkreleasing.com