

Orexo sees very limited exposure to the UK and the British pound

Uppsala, Sweden – June 21, 2016

In response to recent week's media attention to companies exposure to brexit and GBP Orexo AB (publ) today clarifies that its exposure to the UK and thereby fluctuations in the GBP is very limited. Orexo has no direct income in GBP and has only limited indirect exposure to GBP through the Abstral® partner, Kyowa Kirin's (former Prostrakan), sales of Abstral in the UK. Royalties from sales of Abstral in the UK amounts to less than 1 percent of Orexo's annual net revenue and is invoiced by Orexo in euro.

Earlier Orexo has earned one-off Abstral milestone payments in GBP and hence Orexo was historically more exposed to GBP.
