CorePower Yoga Opens 12th Studio in the Twin Cities (96th Nationwide)

Northeast Studio Offers Beginner to Advanced Yoga Classes and Teacher Certification

Minneapolis, MN – Denver-based yoga company CorePower Yoga will open its 12th studio in the Twin Cities on Friday, April 25. This marks the 96th studio opening nationwide for CorePower Yoga.

Located in the historic 945 Broadway building, at the corner of Broadway and Central Avenue, the Northeast Studio will offer a variety of yoga class styles for all levels, including CorePower Yoga's dynamic heated power yoga in beginner to advanced formats, Yoga Sculpt and Hot Power Fusion. In addition to classes, Northeast will offer Yoga Teacher Training, as well as Lifestyle Programs such as boot camps and wellness cleanses to provide students with cross-training opportunities.

"The 945 Broadway building is the perfect location for the Northeast Studio," said Greg Hines, Northeast Studio manager. "There's been a buzz in the neighborhood about CorePower Yoga opening, so we're really excited to introduce our energetic style of yoga to the Northeast community!"

The Northeast Studio is home to two spacious yoga rooms and features a range of amenities including luxurious changing rooms, showers and private lockers. A full retail boutique will showcase men's and women's activewear, as well as a variety of accessories to meet your yoga and lifestyle needs.

Students who are new to CorePower Yoga will receive one week of unlimited free yoga classes. A variety of membership package options are also available.

Last year, CorePower Yoga received a significant investment from Catterton Partners, the leading consumer-focused private equity firm, positioning the brand for rapid growth.
