Changes in ASSA ABLOY's Group Management

Tomas Eliasson, CFO and Executive Vice President of ASSA ABLOY since 1 September 2006, has decided to leave the company to take up a position outside the Group. He will be leaving at the end of March 2012. The process to find his successor has been initiated.

During his time with ASSA ABLOY Tomas Eliasson has played a key role in initiating and implementing new systems and procedures that have contributed to reducing costs and improving quality in the administrative and finance areas. He has also built the finance function to becoming an efficient organization.

We thank Tomas Eliasson for his time as CFO of ASSA ABLOY and wish him success in his new position.
